

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy lists out what information is collected and how Music Rater uses the information. This privacy policy consists of 4 categories these are Information You Provide, Information We See, Information Shared and Email Policy.

Information You Provide:

When creating a new account, we require you to enter an email address and create a password. This is the only information we need from you, and your all set.

Information We See:

After you have created an account. Our system also generates a unique identification or UID. We only see the email address that you signed up with, the auth provider and lastly the UID that was generated during the authentication process.

Information Shared:

Believe it or not, but we don't see a need to share any information. Wondering why? Well because we are not using any services that require information to operate.

Email Policy:

We don't send out any unnecessary emails. The only email you will ever receive from us is if you send in a request to change your email. This email will be an automated email sent from our server, with a link to reset your password.
